

Let's Talk Story!

We Tell Our Story: Filipino Voices in Hawai'i

You are invited to We Tell Our Story's
Public Reading and Sharing with Art Exhibit Opening

Authors representing first to third generations in Hawai'i will read their stories about coming, coping, living, and adapting as Filipinos in Hawaii. The stories on the Filipino experience in Hawaii were created during writing workshops on Oahu, Maui, Kauai, and the Big Island.

Ask questions, share your own stories, and participate in this lively public forum!

An art exhibit opening and student presentations accompany the forum on Oahu.

OAHU all-island writers

Saturday February 1, 2-4 pm

12 noon Art Exhibit opening, 1 p.m. refreshments (open to all)

Hawai'i State Library and on ZOOM

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87673826824?pwd=hba5pEgrHnjCtieG9tdEgBTSIVCwM0.1>

Streaming from <https://www.facebook.com/FAUWHawaii>

BIG ISLAND writers

Monday, February 3, 7- 8: 30 p.m.

Tuesday, February 4, 3-4:30 p.m.

Lyman Museum

Stories from workshop participants will be available at fauwhawaii.org.

We Tell Our Story: Filipino Voices in Hawaii is offered by the Filipino Association of University Women (FAUW), a non-profit organization that aims to preserve and support the history, art and culture of Filipinos and Filipino Americans. Writing workshops and public forums are supported by a grant from the Hawaii Council for the Humanities, through support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Filipino Association of University Women

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT
FOR THE HUMANITIES