

WE TELL OUR STORY

FILIPINO VOICES IN HAWAII

Do you have stories to tell but want to know how best to write them?
Need help in organizing your thoughts and your life memories to share with your family, your friends,
and even the world?

Overcome writing blocks and awaken inspiration. Discover and learn at intensive, fun writing workshops offered free by the Filipino Association of University Women (FAUW).

OAHU

May 31-June 2

MAUI

July 26-28

BIG ISLAND

August 9-11

KAUAI

September 27-29

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

5-7 p.m. Introduction to the Workshop

Saturday, 8:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

Sunday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 -5 p.m.

Your participation in We Tell Our Story: Filipino Voices in Hawaii will become part of a collection to help others understand and appreciate where we came from, how we live, adapt, cope with challenges, and contribute to the overall history of Hawaii.

Workshop results will be shared at public forums and an online anthology.

To register and for more information, contact:

Nanette Ruhter, nanette48@gmail.com * Pepi Nieva 808-225-1219

Nanette Carreon-Ruhter

Margot Q. Adair

Virgie Chattergy

Michelle Cruz Skinner

Workshops will be offered by expert teachers led by Nanette Carreon-Ruhter, who has 44 years of experience as an international English teacher. She directed Writing Workshops Across the Curriculum for international schoolteachers in Asia as an accredited consultant for the UC Berkeley Writing Project and the East Asia Writing Project.

Additional resource teachers: Margot Q. Adair, 30-year teaching veteran from Maryknoll School, Honolulu, Hawaii; Virgie Chattergy, professor emerita, University of Hawaii College of Education; Michelle Cruz Skinner, Punahou School English teacher for 24 years and author of three books.

We Tell Our Story: Filipino Voices in Hawaii is offered by FAUW, a non-profit organization that aims to preserve and support the history, art and culture of Filipinos and Filipino Americans. Workshops and public forums are supported by a grant from the Hawaii Council for the Humanities, through support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

REGISTER NOW

WE TELL OUR STORY: FILIPINO VOICES IN HAWAII

PLEASE SEND via this email to nanette48@gmail.com or call Pepi Nieva at 808-225-1219

☐ YES! I want to attend the weekend writing workshop!

☐ Please email me more information.

☐ Oahu ☐ Maui ☐ Big Island ☐ Kauai

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

Email _____

Workshop spaces are open on a first come, first served basis.